

Wine in the Garden 2015

Auction Donation Form

On May 28, 2015 from 5-8 p.m. we will hold our ninth annual garden party in the John L. Clark Honors Garden, a three-acre garden with memorial plantings. At the garden party, about 500 guests will stroll through the garden, listen to local bluegrass music, sample wine, beer and food. Guests support us by shopping for items in our silent auction.

Thank you for donating to our auction and contributing to the success of the Conservancy!

Howard County Conservancy

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone: _____ Email _____

Item(s) donated: _____

Description of item(s): _____

Approximate value: _____

Name or business exactly as you would like to be recognized in program:

Special Instructions: _____

Return this completed form promptly. However, donated items should be mailed, dropped off or delivered prior to 5/16/15

Please email this information to auction@hconservancy.org. Questions email us or call 410-465-8877 for questions or visit our website at <http://www.hconservancy.org>.

The Howard County Conservancy is the county's first nature center and largest land trust. Each year over 10,000 students participate in its environmental education programs. We are open to the public for numerous programs and special events throughout the year attracting over 3,000 annually. We also hold conservation easements on 1,600 acres in Howard County, including our 232-acre headquarters in Woodstock, which hosts over 4 miles of trails. The Conservancy is a local, non-profit organization and donations are tax-deductible to the full extent protected by law. Our tax ID is 52-1712913.